One of the integrated and modern components of assisted living is skilled nursing care. An older person who required a high degree of skilled care may be able to transition to a reduced level of care if they receive high-quality care. After being ill, hurt, or having surgery, many of our elders have come straight from the hospital to Alpha homes to complete their recovery on a chargeable basis.

We offer a reliable relief management system for post-operative care, rehabilitation, and respite care in a homelike setting at our assisted living facilities. Alpha is not a hospice or a nursing home.

Our Philosophy

To give each individual an exclusive experience of healthy living with assisted care, and a therapeutic and holistic approach.

“ Occupational Therapy:
Aging is a physiologically inevitable process with chronological, social and psychological dimensions. Due to the physiological and physical changes that occur in the elderly in this process, some activities of the individuals are restricted or prevented from realizing these activities. ”

“ Nutritional guidance:
Good health starts with the right nutrition. A good meal has the potential to uplift the spirits and invoke happiness and satisfaction. At Alpha, we ensure that each meal coming out of the kitchen is both delicious and nutritious. Meals at Alpha are curated by dietitians, enabling a balanced and holistic diet, considering the nutritional needs of seniors. ”

“ Medical Support:
With a team of highly qualified doctors helming the operations at Alpha, we have made it our mission to help you have a happy, healthy and dignified life with the best medicare services, covering age-related chronic conditions as well as critical conditions that require specialized care. We have developed strict protocols and processes to ensure constant medical supervision without interrupting the fun. ”

“ Yoga and Meditation:
Practicing self-care through yoga and meditation can help relieve the stress and anxiety that comes with aging and caregiving while improving flexibility, balance, and overall strength. Meditation is the practice of quieting the mind that results in relaxation of both body and mind. Yoga combines the mindfulness and breath control of meditation with specific bodily postures to help increase flexibility and strength. ”
